Hi Simon

Please see below response from Stephanie, I am afraid this seems to be the norm with all Planning Departments at the moment, I will chase her up again early next week.

Kind regards.

Good Morning Shona,

Thank you for your email.

Apologies for not responding to you sooner. I appreciate the applicant's urgency on this matter however, I have a very busy workload at the moment so have not had the opportunity to consider the submitted information as yet. I am hoping to get to read it through today and would hope to give you an update next week. I would appreciate your patience on this matter.

I trust that this is of assistance to you.

Regards,

Stephanie

Dear Madam,

LICENSING (SCOTLAND) ACT 2005
OCCASIONAL LICENCE APPLICATION 144, 145 and 146
PREMISES: BROXMOUTH ESTATE, BROXMOUTH PARK, DUNBAR, EH42
1QW.
APPLICANT: JOEL GHODKE, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

I refer to the above applications and in terms of Section 58(1)(b)(ii) of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005, I make the following representation in relation to the application:

At the Licensing Board on the 28th September 2017, following similar applications, it was agreed that no further occasional licences would be granted in respect of these premises.

Minutes of the meeting are quoted as follows:

"Councillor Goodfellow expressed extreme disappointment at a further occasional licence from the premises, despite indicating at a previous Board meeting that he would not be minded to grant further occasional licences. He made it very clear that the Board would take a serious view if there was any suggestion in promotional material that the business holds a full licence.

Councillor Henderson voiced her concern in relation to the Board being 'held to ransom', given that the wedding was already booked.

Councillor McMillan stressed that it was important that occasional licence applications 'never happen again'.

Councillor McGinn made it clear that applications for occasional licences 'had to end'.

Councillor Bruce stated that he was minded to grant this application but that it would 'not be the case for future occasional licence applications'.

Decision: The Board agreed to grant the occasional licence.

I therefore refer all of the above applications to the Board for their consideration.

Police Scotland are of the opinion that the responsibility for confirming the identity of the applicant, and the validity and current status of any Premises or Personal Licence (including details of any previous or existing suspensions, variations, written warnings or endorsements) quoted on the application form where it was issued in another Board area, rests with the Local Authority and the Licensing Board, not with the Police. When the Police receive such applications we will assume that these checks have been adequately conducted at the point of application and prior to the enquiry being submitted to Police Scotland.

This representation is submitted for your attention in consideration of this application.

Yours faithfully
