NAIL SALON RISK ASSESSMENT

Risk	Likelihood	Consequences	Action
CHEMICAL HAZARDS Salon staff constantly work directly with and around hazardous substances: Nail polish, artificial nails, primers, fingernail glue, polish remover, and more. Filing nails creates dust that can be harmful to inhale. Disinfecting chemicals. Cloths, cushions, cotton balls, and other fabrics soaked in cleaning chemicals or glue remover.	Not very unlikely	Inhalation of chemicals or dust can lead to irritation, headaches, dizziness, sickness, occupational asthma, or even cancer. Ingestion can cause throat irritation and illness. Direct contact with the skin or eyes can cause irritation, rashes, or occupational eczema and dermatitis. Poorly-handled waste chemicals and fabrics continue to spread fumes and pose a fire hazard.	MSDS training for staff . Using of correct PPE such as gloves, mask . Installation of Ventilation . Designated storage for chemical. Staff should clean up chemical spillages right away and do so safely. They must also safely dispose of materials used to clean spillages, as well as cotton balls and other fabrics soaked in chemicals. This type of waste should go in a lined, lidded bin.
Ergonomic Risk	Probable	Many salon workers adopt a poor posture to carry out their job. They may lean over and rest their arms on the desk, which strains their back and applies harmful pressure to contact points on their arms. Over time, poor ergonomics can lead to bad joints, sore muscles, and even chronic musculoskeletal disorders.	Staff should sit up straight and keep their arms supported by a cushion or pad on the table.They should use an adjustable chair that supports their lower back. Feet should lay flat on the floor without straining the thighs. Use a cushion or other means to prop up the customer's hand or foot to prevent staff from leaning forward. Staff should take regular breaks between customers to stretch.Avoiding musculoskeletal strain is straightforward, so long as staff consistently maintain a good posture and improve their working space.
Risk of infection	Possible	Customers or staff with broken skin or uncovered wounds may allow infections to spread, particularly when they soak their hands or feet in basins. Good hygiene practices can easily prevent the spread of infection	Staff should wear gloves at all times and dispose of them after each customer. Cover wounds with plasters. Avoid touching blood or bodily fluids. If staff need to clean these up, they must wear their gloves and dispose of them safely afterwards. Thoroughly disinfect tools, worktables, and basins after each customer.

Received

To Sir or Madame,

We wish to register an objection against the Entertainment Licence for Chloe Nails, at 88 North High Street, Musselburgh.

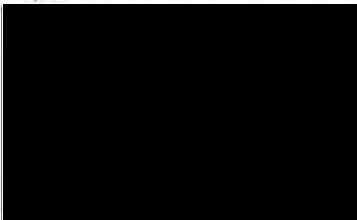

If this licence was to be approved therefore be 9 open nail and beauty salons within a 0.5mile radius. Thus making competition unviable for existing salons which have only just been able to reopen after the 2nd lockdown due to the pandemic.

We believe there is enough choice of nails and beauty within the North High Street community area as there is further nails and beauty salons within the High Street and surrounding area, although we promote healthy competition within the industry, we do not wish to flood the high street with the same or similar business.

Kind Regards

Good morning Ms Nguyen,

Thank you for your email.

- Having received the objection to your application, East Lothian Council's Licensing Sub-committee is required to consider your application and the objection. You will be able to address your concerns about the objection at this meeting.
- At this point, I would like to advise that your application for a Public Entertainment Licence is covered by the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 so your points relating to the Licensing Act 2003 are not valid. These objectives are listed in the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 but this legislation relates to licensing surrounding the sale of alcohol only.
- There is no reason why your business partner and / or solicitor can't be present at the Licensing Sub-committee meeting on 10 June 2021.
- There is no requirement for you to provide business documents however you may want to submit any documents / photographs you feel are relevant, to licensing@eastlothian.gov.uk prior to the meeting.

I hope this is of assistance.

CAUTION: This email originated from outside of the organisation. Do not click links or open attachments unless you recognise the sender and know the content is safe.

Dear Christine,

Thank you so much for getting back to me.

English is my second language. Please forgive me if I made any spelling or grammar errors in this email.

I have some concerns about the objective letter.

First thing is Diamonds Nails & Me said nine beauty and nails salon within 0.5 mile but I only see three objections here. Where are another six? Or because those six salons are thinking that no competitions here.

Second, Nylla fashion & beauty is ineligible for the objection. She doesn't do any things related to nails. She is only offering eyebrows services which we don't do. So her objection is not valid. Cathy who owned Diamond Nails & Me rented a space in Nylla salon before she moved to current premises. After Cathy left, no nail services are carrying in there. Cathy asked Nylla owner to join in her team to make an unrealistic objection.

Eivissa is a combination of hairdresser and beauty salon, is not a proper nail salon like us. They just have one/two nail stations and is not offering whole range nails services same as us. My salon is not offering any beauty services. So I don't think my salon is a real competitor to Eivissa and her objective is not correct.

Only one competitor who offering same services like me is Diamond Nails & Me. If just only one proper competitor, I do not see any affections to local nail/beauty industry. I met Cathy and told her that I will keep the price list same as her salon. No drop in prices here. She can not said my business will flood another businesses.

Lots of customers are asking me about my opening times. They also come to convenience store (next door) to ask about my business. That mean customers want more choices for getting their nails done.

Third, I also spent nearly £30000 to set up this salon. If my application is refused by competitors objection, it will really unfair to me, my staff and my landlord. At the moment, I am also paying rent even couldn't start to trade. I feel like I am stuck at the end of the road without any places to turn.

In the addition, from my knowledges, there is no competition law in Scotland that anyone can stop their competitors set up new businesses. Some councils also posted on their websites, objectives cannot be considered if they relate to anything else, such as planning permission, the need for the premises, trade competition.

In Licensing Act 2003, representations must relate to one or more of the licensing objectives:

- Preventing crime and disorder

- Protecting and improving public health
- Preventing public nuisance
- Protecting children from harm
- Securing public safety

I do not think my salon related to above licensing objectives.

I do not understand why the Board set up a meeting with this frivolous/vexatious objection letter.

However, I would like to ask some more questions if I still need to join in the meeting.

Can my consultant join in the meeting with me? She is also my interpreter. She will help me to explain this matter because English is not my first language and my accent is hard for the Board to understand.

If I hire a Scottish solicitor, can he/she join in the meeting? Can my consultant/interpreter also join in to help me with the translation?

Do I need to show any business documents during the meeting?

Thank you so much for your helps.

I am looking forward to hearing from you.

Best regards
Oanh Nguyen

To whom it may concern.

I worked on behalf of the landlord in letting this shop to Oanh Nguyen, she paid a holding deposit and went about everything in the right way with frequent contact with the council to make sure she was permitted to open a nail bar here. She was eventually told she could, and the deal went ahead.

It seems strange that one objection letter from a similar business (not the same) who took away a class 1 retail store and changed it to a nail bar only in 2019 should be the one to complain. Its ok for them to add another nail bar in 2019 but if anyone else tries to do it then it's not.

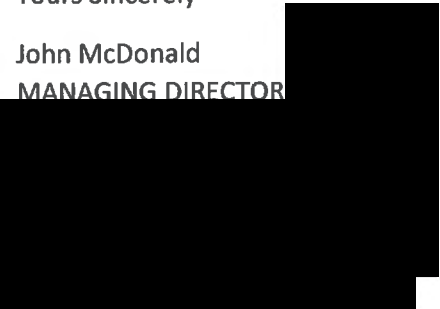

We are commercial property agents and specialize in small commercial units and as everyone knows, the supermarkets are killing all the small retail shops as well as Amazon and the internet. The only successful occupiers nowadays are coffee shops, beauty/nails/hair, tattooist's, takeaway's, physio's and vape shops, somewhere where you have to go and physically get something you need or a service/treatment carried out.

Oanh has heavily invested into 88a North High Street, Musselburgh, surely a nice bright busy shop will be better than an empty shop.

There is also a lot of barbers on that street too and that is because the demand is there for it. Musselburgh is a big place and there are plenty people who live there like to get a haircut, get their nails done and go for a sunbed.

Yours Sincerely

Dear Sir or Madam

I have a newsagent business in North High Street Musselburgh. Just to let you know that there is a demand for another nail bar in the area. 88A North High Street Musselburgh was a nail bar before it was closed down and since then people have been enquiring when the shop is opening up again but once people see Oanh Nguyen was doing the shop up and adding the sign board to the front of the shop, people were convinced that the nail bar will be opening up soon.

To my knowledge, 'Eivissa Boutique' and 'Nylla Fashion and Beauty' do not offer nail service; however, Diamond Nail and Me is the only business that offers this service. The business mentioned was previously operating and offering the nail service before 88A North High Street opened in 2019 as a nail bar. Diamond Nail and Me are located on the other end of the street.

I hope you look into Oanh Nguyen's application again before you consider a final decision. There is a demand for a nail salon on this end of the street (88A North High Street Musselburgh).

To whom it may concern

Dear Sir/Madam

My name is Dung Vo.

I am writing this letter to Licensing Department of East Lothian Council about the objections of Public Entertainment Licence for Chloe Nails Musselburgh Ltd.

Ms Oanh Nguyen asked me to join in her team at Chloe Nails & Spa which is locating at 88 North High Street, Musselburgh, EH21 6AS. I accepted her offer and sent resignation letter to leave my current job. It has been accepted. I will leave on 8th June 2021.

I and Think Nguyen family will move to Musselburgh and share a rented property in there.

For the competitors objections of Chloe Nails Ltd, Nylla Fashion & Beauty is a brow bar, not offering any services related to nails. Elivissa is a combination hairdresser, not a direct competitor to Chloe Nails. Only Diamond Nails & Spa is a proper nails salon and a direct competitor.

Why Diamond Nails & Me can trading but Chloe Nails & Spa cannot. They just opened on September 2020. I don't think Diamond Nails & Me have any abilities to restrict similar business.

Those objections will cause me problems if it is accepted. Due to affections of pandemic, job is so hard to find and nobody wants to be unemployed.

I saw so many Chinese takeaways, barbers, convenience stores are on the street but only one proper nails salon. Why new proper nail salon can be object even it could bring more jobs to local people in the future.

I hope East Lothian Council understand my point of view, my circumstances and will have a fair decision.

To whom it may concern

Dear Sir/Madam

My name is Thinh Nguyen.

I write this letter about the objections of Chloe Nails Musselburgh Ltd Public Entertainment Licence.

I was offered to work for Chloe Nails & Spa which is located at 88 North High Street, Musselburgh, EH21 6AS. I accepted the offer and sent resignation letter for current job. My current employer hired new staff who will replace my position when I left. I will leave on 5th June 2021.

I also sent the letter to agent to terminate my house lease contract and prepare moving my family to Musselburgh.

If the competitive objections are accepted, it will be really unfair for me, my family, my colleagues and Chloe Nails' owner. It will cause my family big troubles including no incomes, maybe homeless.

I visited Chloe Nails in Musselburgh and went around North High Street. I only saw one proper nail salon is Diamond Nails & Me. Nylla Fashion & Beauty is not offering nails services so I don't think her objection is correct. Elvissa is a hairdresser and nail treatments are just one of their services. Elvissa will not really be affected by Chloe Nails.

There are so many takeaways, barbers, clothes stores, etc are in the street and only one proper nails salon. Why new proper nail salon can be object but another types of businesses are accepted?

I hope East Lothian Council understand my circumstances and make a right and fair decision.

Yours faithfully

- Google Chrome on Window, MacOS or Linux
- The Connect Remote iOS or Android app

iOS app : <https://apps.apple.com/gb/app/connect-remote/id1513126971>

Android app : <https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=tv.publici.connectremote>

If you are unable to attend in person you may appoint another person to speak on your behalf, you must however provide this person with written authorisation which sanctions them to do so and this must be emailed to licensing@eastlothian.gov.uk 48 hours before the meeting.

An agenda for the Licensing Sub Committee Meeting will follow in due course and a member of the team will call you a few days before the meeting with details on how to join the meeting.

Yours faithfully
