EAST LoTHIAN COUNCIL

LICENSING STANDARDS

From: Karen Harling
Licensing Standards Officer

To: C. Grilli
Clerk to the Licensing Board

Date: 6th April 2023

Subject: LICENSING SCOTLAND ACT 2005
REPORT - OCCASIONAL LICENCE APPLICATION OCC186/23 & OCC187/23
Douglas Forsyth, representative of voluntary organisations Daughters of Israel
LLOL 214 and Tranent True Blues LOL 228 for events at Blair Halls, Tranent

I refer to the above subject, applications for two occasional licences from Douglas Forsyth as a representative of the voluntary organisations Daughters of Israel LLOL 214 and Tranent True Blues LOL 228.

Mr Forsyth has previously been issued occasional licences as a representative for the following voluntary organisations:

- East Lothian District LOL 44
- Tranent True Blues LOL 228
- Daughters of Israel LLOL 214
- East Lothian Campsie Club

It is unclear if the above organisations are four separate organisations in their own right or if they are part of the wider Orange Order in Scotland as one organisation. Of note East Lothian LOL 44 is a district and Tranent True Blues LOL 228 is a branch of that district.

A request has been sent to the applicant, Mr Forsyth, to provide evidence as to the structure of each voluntary organisation, a copy of the constitution and a list of office bearers. At the time of writing, no response has been received.

Over the last 12-month period the following occasional licences have been issued by the Board to Mr Forsyth as a representative of the organisations:

- East Lothian District LOL 44 – 2 licences issued
- Tranent True Blues LOL 228 – 10 licences issued
- Daughters of Israel LLOL 214 – 2 licence issued
- East Lothian Campsie Club – 4 licences issued

Total of all the above - 17 licence issued

I refer the Licensing Board to section 56 (6) of the Licensing Scotland Act 2005 as follows:

Section 56 (6) A Licensing Board may issue under subsection (1) in respect of any one voluntary organisation in any period of 12 months—

(a) not more than 4 occasional licences each having effect for a period of 4 days or more, and

(b) not more than 12 occasional licences each having effect for a period of less than 4 days,

provided that, in any period of 12 months, the total number of days on which occasional licences issued in respect of the organisation have effect does not exceed 56.

(6A) If the granting of an occasional licence application would result in the occasional licence limit being exceeded, the Board must refuse the application.

I recommend with the available evidence, the Board to consider if the above listed organisations are considered one voluntary organisation or is they are satisfied that they are 4 clear and distinct organisations.

I am aware that 2 previous occasional licences that were granted to Mr Forsyth as a representative of Daughters Of Israel LLOL 214 for 26th August 2023 and Tranent True Blues LOL 228 for 25th February 2023, which were advertised on social media in relation to NO1 Platoon East Lothian. This was also printed on the tickets sold. It is unclear what organisation NO1 Platoon East Lothian is and the events should not be advertised under a different organisation than the occasional licence is granted to.

In addition another occasional licence that was granted to Mr Forsyth as a representative of East Lothian District LOL 44 that was advertised on social media in relation to East Lothian Ladies Somme Association. This was also printed on the tickets sold. It is unclear what organisation East Lothian Ladies Somme Association is and the event again should not be advertised under a different organisation than the occasional licence it is granted to.

I would draw the Board's attention to mandatory condition 5(2) on occasional licences:

Alcohol may be sold on the premises only at an event taking place on the premises in connection with the voluntary organisation's activities.

The activities on the applications have been detailed as "fundraisers with live music". I recommend, given that the events are advertised under different organisations, the Board considers if the mandatory condition has been breached. It may be of benefit to the board to seek clarification from the applicant to account for the funds raised and their use in the organisation to which the occasional licence refers.

Should the board determine that the above are all part of one larger organisation, the total applications issued to this organisation has exceeded the statutory limit set out above.

As such, occasional licence applications OCC186/23 and OCC187/23 should be refused as per section 56(6A).

I would also recommend that the board, directed by legal advice, consider the revocation any occasional licences that have been granted that exceed the limit of 12 for one voluntary organisation for events taking place after the board hearing.

Subject: LICENSING SCOTLAND ACT 2005
REPORT - OCCASIONAL LICENCE APPLICATION OCC186/23 & OCC187/23
Douglas Forsyth, representative of voluntary organisations Daughters of Israel
LLOL 214 and Tranent True Blues LOL 228 for events at Blair Halls, Tranent

I refer to the above subject, applications for two occasional licences from Douglas Forsyth as a representative of the voluntary organisations Daughters of Israel LLOL 214 and Tranent True Blues LOL 228.

Mr Forsyth has previously been issued occasional licences as a representative for the following voluntary organisations:

- East Lothian District LOL 44
- Tranent True Blues LOL 228
- Daughters of Israel LLOL 214
- East Lothian Campsie Club

It is unclear if the above organisations are four separate organisations in their own right or if they are part of the wider Orange Order in Scotland as one organisation. Of note East Lothian LOL 44 is a district and Tranent True Blues LOL 228 is a branch of that district.

A request has been sent to the applicant, Mr Forsyth, to provide evidence as to the structure of each voluntary organisation, a copy of the constitution and a list of office bearers. At the time of writing, no response has been received.

Over the last 12-month period the following occasional licences have been issued by the Board to Mr Forsyth as a representative of the organisations:

- East Lothian District LOL 44 – 2 licences issued
- Tranent True Blues LOL 228 – 10 licences issued
- Daughters of Israel LLOL 214 – 2 licence issued
- East Lothian Campsie Club – 4 licences issued

Total of all the above - 17 licence issued

I refer the Licensing Board to section 56 (6) of the Licensing Scotland Act 2005 as follows:

Section 56 (6) A Licensing Board may issue under subsection (1) in respect of any one voluntary organisation in any period of 12 months —

(a) not more than 4 occasional licences each having effect for a period of 4 days or more, and

(b) not more than 12 occasional licences each having effect for a period of less than 4 days,

provided that, in any period of 12 months, the total number of days on which occasional licences issued in respect of the organisation have effect does not exceed 56.

(6A) If the granting of an occasional licence application would result in the occasional licence limit being exceeded, the Board must refuse the application.

I recommend with the available evidence, the Board to consider if the above listed organisations are considered one voluntary organisation or is they are satisfied that they are 4 clear and distinct organisations.

I am aware that 2 previous occasional licences that were granted to Mr Forsyth as a representative of Daughters Of Israel LLOL 214 for 26th August 2023 and Tranent True Blues LOL 228 for 25th February 2023, which were advertised on social media in relation to NO1 Platoon East Lothian. This was also printed on the tickets sold. It is unclear what organisation NO1 Platoon East Lothian is and the events should not be advertised under a different organisation than the occasional licence is granted to.

In addition another occasional licence that was granted to Mr Forsyth as a representative of East Lothian District LOL 44 that was advertised on social media in relation to East Lothian Ladies Somme Association. This was also printed on the tickets sold. It is unclear what organisation East Lothian Ladies Somme Association is and the event again should not be advertised under a different organisation than the occasional licence it is granted to.

Should the board determine that the above are all part of one larger organisation, the total applications issued to this organisation has exceeded the statutory limit set out above.

As such, occasional licence applications OCC186/23 and OCC187/23 should be refused as per section 56(6A).

I would also recommend that the board, directed by legal advice, consider the revocation any occasional licences that have been granted that exceed the limit of 12 for one voluntary organisation for events taking place after the board hearing.
